

THE ANGLICAN PARISH OF ALL SAINTS, ROSEBUD with ST. KATHERINE'S McCRAE

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
19th September 2021

Sentence

Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.

Mark 9:35

COLLECT FOR TODAY

God and father of all, you have taught us through your Son that the last shall be first, and have made a little child the measure of your kingdom: give us the wisdom from above, so that we may understand that in your sight the one who serves is the greatest of all. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from Jeremiah

It was the Lord who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds. But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, 'Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!' But you, O Lord of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

[Jeremiah 11:18-20]

For the Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 54

Response: The Lord is the upholder of my life.

¹ Save me, O God, by the power of your name:
and vindicate me by your might.

² Hear my prayer, O God:
and listen to the words of my mouth. R

³ For the insolent have risen against me:
the ruthless, who have not set God before them,
seek my life.

4 But surely God is my helper:
the Lord is the upholder of my life. R

5 Let evil recoil on those that would waylay me:
O destroy them in your faithfulness!

6 Then will I offer you sacrifice with a willing heart:
I will praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

7 For you will deliver me from every trouble:
my eyes shall see the downfall of my enemies. R

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of James.

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue – restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

[James 3: 1-12]

For the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

THE GOSPEL

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.'

Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

[Mark 9:30-37]
