Parish Musings

Leading our Church into Growth:

It was encouraging to gather with Revd. Chris and Revd. Kristine last weekend. We worked together on the material, Leading your Church into Growth. We discussed what we are doing now, some possibilities as well as inviting us all to pray for our Parish at All Saints and St Katherines. I have committed myself and asked Parish Council to pray daily the following prayer.

God of Mission,
Who alone brings growth to your church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give Vision to our planning
Wisdom to our actions
Joy to our worship
And power to our witness
Help our church to grow in numbers
In spiritual commitment to you
And in service to our local community. Amen.

The life of our Parish needs a strong foundation of prayer and I invite all of us to commit to praying this prayer. In time, I will provide each of you with a card for you to take home with this prayer on it.

I love that we are already a church who is committed to pray for one another.

As we continue to make our way through Reimagining the Future and Leading your church into growth material, may I encourage you to pray and have a go at inviting someone new to church. You never know, they might say yes!

May you be blessed as you come and worship with us today.

The Reverend Lynda Crossley

Reverend Lynda, our vicar, would like the parish to know that she is now fully recovered from her illness earlier in the year. While many of you have been concerned, Revd. Lynda would like you to know she is of good health.

Introit Hymn. 409 O Breath of Life

† Blessed be God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit
Blessed be God forever.

The Lord be with you
And also with you

Sentence of Scripture

Of Jesus many said, 'What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!' Mark 6.2

Collect for Today

O Lord our God,
you are always more ready to bestow
your good gifts upon us than we are to seek them;
and more willing to give
than we desire or deserve:
in our every need,
grant us the first and best of all your gifts,
the Spirit who makes us your children.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever. Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

The First reading is from 2 Samuel 5.1-5, 5.9-10

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, 'Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.' So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inwards. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord , the God of hosts, was with him.

PSALM 48

RESPONSE: We wait for your loving kindness O God, in the midst of your temple.

- 1 Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised:
in the city of our God.
- 2 High and beautiful is his holy hill:
it is the joy of all the earth. R
- 3 On Mount Zion, where godhead truly dwells, stands the city of the Great King:
God is well known in her palaces as a sure defence. R
- 4 For the kings of the earth assembled:
they gathered together and came on;
- 5 They saw, they were struck dumb:
they were astonished and fled in terror.
- 6 Trembling took hold on them, and anguish:
as on a woman in her travail;
- 7 Like the breath of the east wind:
that shatters the ships of Tarshish. R
- 8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts:
in the city of our God,
which God has established for ever.
- 9 We have called to mind your loving-kindness, O God:
in the midst of your temple. R

- 10 As your name is great, O God, so also is your praise:
even to the ends of the earth.
- 11 Your right hand is full of victory
—let Zion's hill rejoice:
let the daughters of Judah be glad,
because of your judgements. R
- 12 Walk about Zion, go round about her,
and count all her towers:
consider well her ramparts, pass through her palaces;
- 13 That you may tell those who come after that such is God:
our God for ever and ever, and he will guide us eternally. R

The Second Reading is from 2 Corinthians 12.2-10

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows— was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given to me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Gradual Hymn: 448 Blest are the pure in heart

THE GOSPEL
The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to MARK 6.1-12

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

He left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Offertory hymn: 449 Stand up and bless the Lord
Final Hymn: 106 Now thank we all our God.

This week's Collect

O God,
you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you,
that, loving you above all things,
we may obtain your promises which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From the Archbishop of Canterbury

We have been asked by The Archbishops of Canterbury and York to continue to pray for Ukraine:

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

We write to you as the world is in turmoil following recent events in Eastern Europe. I am sure that you will agree that the horrific and unprovoked attack on Ukraine is an act of great evil.

Now, more than ever, we need to place our trust in Jesus Christ, as we remember that God is not the author of confusion but of peace; and so I urge you to pray for a ceasefire, a withdrawal of Russian forces and for peace to prevail. Pray for the innocent – the women, men and children who are displaced, whose lives are disrupted, and who live in fear of the atrocities of war. Pray for those with power – that they may make a resolute and public decision to never use force, to actively work for peace and seek peaceful solutions to dispute and disagreement. Pray that there may be a recognition of common and shared humanity and God’s promise of flourishing life for all people.

The Bishop in Europe has asked us to join them in prayer for the chaplaincy in Kyiv and the churches that serve Ukraine.

At this time of great uncertainty, we place our hope and trust in God, whose love never fails. Lord, have mercy.

We also continue to keep in our prayers the people of Palestine and also of those wars continuing in other parts of the world:

Afghanistan, Ethiopia, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, Somalia, Libya, the Central African Republic, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Myanmar, Colombia, and Mali are currently in civil wars.

Let us together continue to pray for peace in our world.
