

THE ANGLICAN PARISH OF ALL SAINTS, ROSEBUD with ST. KATHERINE'S McCRAE

---

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
3rd OCTOBER 2021

Welcome to our Parish.

Our vicar is the Reverend Lynda Crossley

Sentence

You, Lord, are all that I have; I have promised to keep your word. I have sought your favour with all my heart; be gracious to me according to your promise. [Psalm 119:57-58]

Today we are celebrating St. Francis of Assisi 9 (d. 1226)

COLLECT FOR TODAY

O God, whose blessed Son became poor so that we, through his poverty, might become rich: deliver us from an inordinate love of this world, so that, inspired by the devotion of your servant Francis of Assisi, we may serve you with singleness of heart, and attain to the riches of the age to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Jonah

<sup>1</sup> Now the word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying, <sup>2</sup> ‘Go at once to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before me.’ <sup>3</sup> But Jonah set out to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid his fare and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the Lord. <sup>4</sup> But the Lord hurled a great wind upon the sea, and such a mighty storm came upon the sea that the ship threatened to break up. <sup>5</sup> Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. Jonah, meanwhile, had gone down into the hold of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep. <sup>6</sup> The captain came and said to him, ‘What are you doing sound asleep? Get up, call on your god! Perhaps the god will spare us a thought so that we do not perish.’ <sup>7</sup> The sailors said to one another, ‘Come, let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this calamity has come upon us.’ So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>8</sup> Then they said to him, ‘Tell us why this calamity has come upon us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?' <sup>9</sup> 'I am a Hebrew,' he replied. 'I worship the Lord , the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.' <sup>10</sup> Then the men were even more afraid, and said to him, 'What is this that you have done!' For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the Lord , because he had told them so. <sup>11</sup> Then they said to him, 'What shall we do to you, that the sea may quieten down for us?' For the sea was growing more and more tempestuous. <sup>12</sup> He said to them, 'Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quieten down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great storm has come upon you.' <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. <sup>14</sup> Then they cried out to the Lord , 'Please, O Lord , we pray, do not let us perish on account of this man's life. Do not make us guilty of innocent blood; for you, O Lord , have done as it pleased you.' <sup>15</sup> So they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup> Then the men feared the Lord even more, and they offered a sacrifice to the Lord and made vows. <sup>17</sup> But the Lord provided a large fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights. 2 <sup>1</sup> Then Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from the belly of the fish, <sup>10</sup> Then the Lord spoke to the fish, and it spewed Jonah out upon the dry land. [Jonah1: 1-2:1,10]

PSALM 130

Response: I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him.

<sup>1</sup> Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord:

Lord, hear my voice;

the voice of my supplication. R

<sup>3</sup> If you, Lord, should note what we do wrong:
who then, O Lord, could stand?
<sup>4</sup> But there is forgiveness with you:
so that you shall be feared. R

<sup>5</sup> I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him:
and in his word is my hope.
<sup>6</sup> My soul looks for the Lord:
more than watchmen for the morning,
more, I say, than watchmen for the morning. R

<sup>7</sup> O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy:
and with him is ample redemption.
<sup>8</sup> He will redeem Israel:
from the multitude of their sins. R

THE GOSPEL

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

A lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "what is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself." And he said to him, "you have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?" Jesus replied, "a man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, passed by on the other side. So, likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him he was moved with pity. He went to him, bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the inn keeper and said, 'Take care of him and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "the one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

REGARDING VACCINATIONS

The following is a message from our Archbishop, The Most Revd. Dr Philip Freier, about vaccinations, which was sent to all clergy on 1st September. "We have no hesitation in urging everyone who is eligible to get vaccinated as soon as possible. The evidence is mounting that vaccination is highly effective. Getting vaccinated is an act of love for your neighbour, and to provide safety in our community, churches and society. There is no credible argument against vaccination, and the risks of serious side effects from any of the vaccines available are extremely low. The Archbishop and bishops have all had a second dose, or have the second dose booked within the next few days." +Philip.

Our Vicar Lynda is fully vaccinated and encourages everyone who feasibly can to be vaccinated as well. We are so looking forward to opening the church and seeing you all again when we can. Our prayers continue for your safety and wellbeing, and if there is anything we can do to support you, please do let us know.
